

クラッシュバンディクー 1

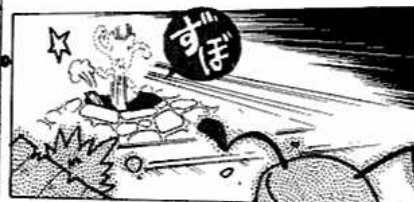

...I think you'd be better off if you would be a bit afraid...

I'm not afraid of a few silly traps at all!

Whoa~ It's kinda dark in here.

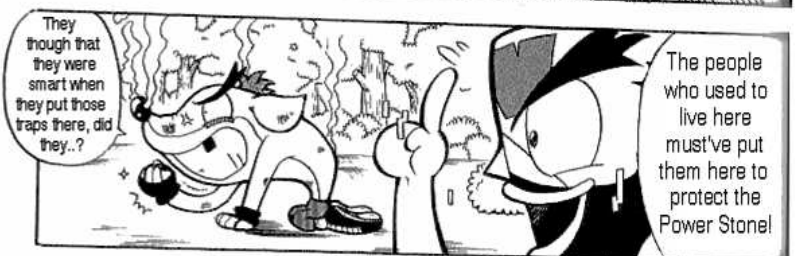

I'll get the stone in no time!

You two just keep on talking.

It would seem like there's some traps...

You alright ?!

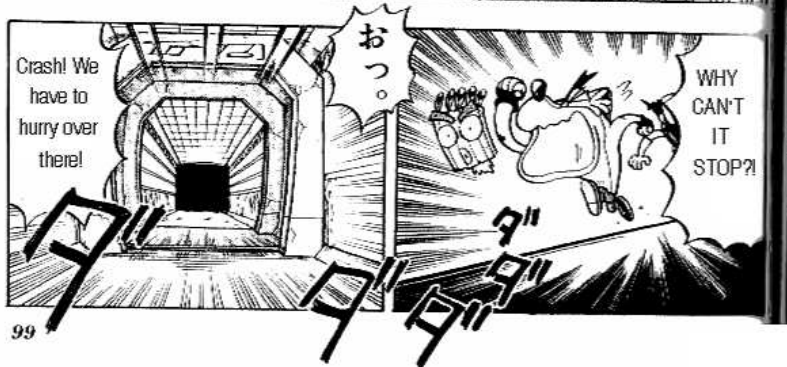

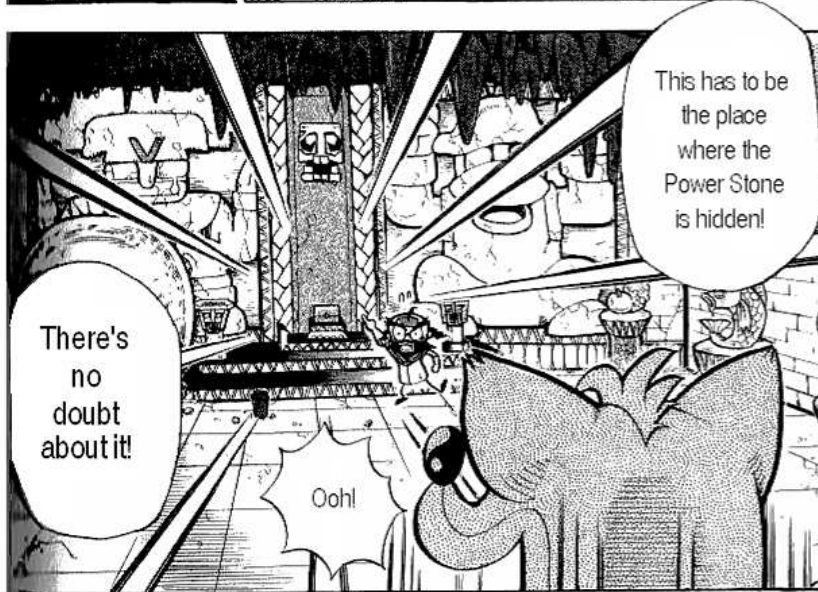

They thought that they were smart when they put those traps there, did they..?

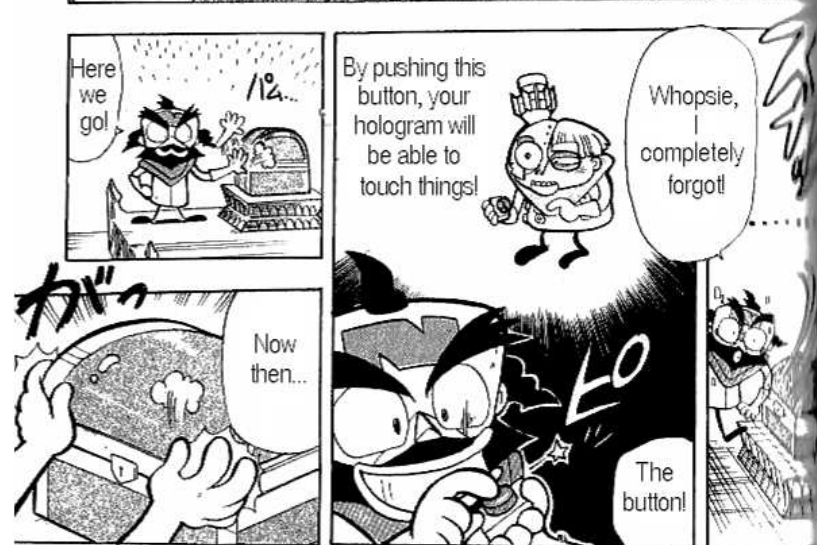

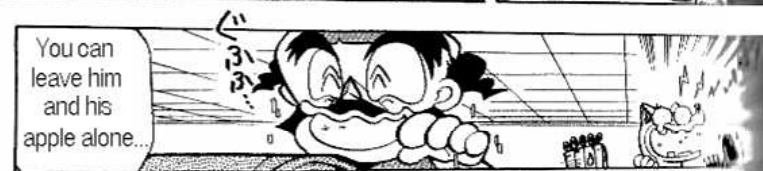

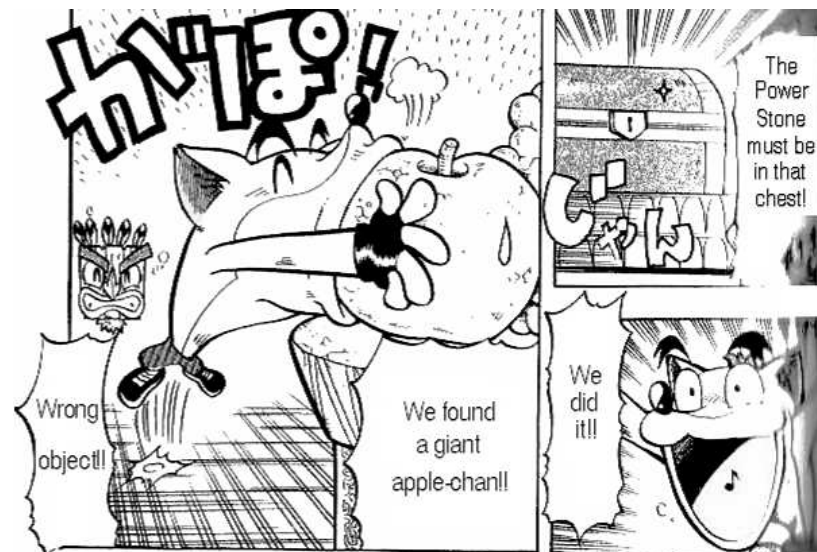

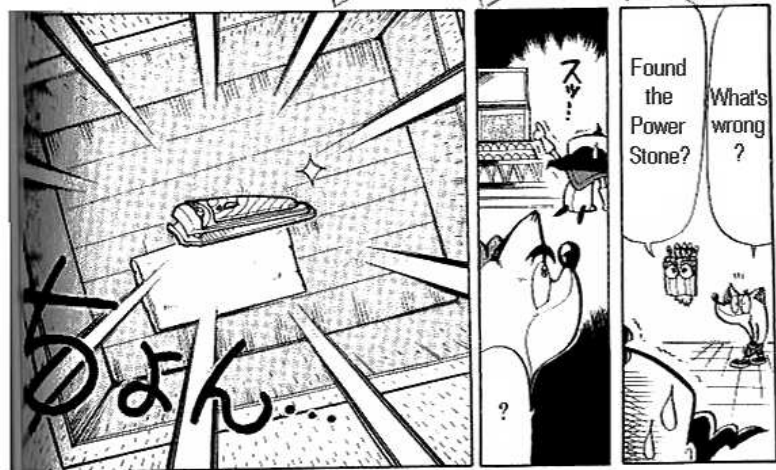

The people who used to live here must've put them here to protect the Power Stone!
